PART - I

5.0 General Moral Imperatives

5.1 Contribute to society and human well being

- 5.1.1 This principle concerning the quality of life of all people, affirms an obligation to protect fundamental human rights and to respect the diversity of all cultures. We must attempt to ensure that the products of our efforts will be used in socially responsible ways, will meet social needs and will avoid harmful effects to health and welfare of others. In addition to a safe social environment, human well being includes a safe natural environment.

- 5.1.2 Therefore, all Board Members and Senior Management who are accountable for the design, development, manufacture and promotions of company's products, must be alert to, and make others aware of, both a legal and a moral responsibility for the safety and the protection of human life and environment.

5.2 Be honest and trustworthy & practice integrity

- 5.2.1 Integrity and honesty are essential components of trust. Without trust an organization cannot function effectively.
- 5.2.2 All Board Members and Senior Management are expected to act in accordance with highest standards of personal and professional integrity, honesty and ethical conduct, while conducting business of the Company.

5.3 Be fair and take action not to discriminate

- 5.3.1 The value of equality, tolerance, respect for others, and the principles of equal justice govern this imperative. Discrimination, on the basis of race, sex, religion, caste, age, disability, national origins or other such factors, is an explicit violation of this Code.

5.4 Honour confidentiality

- 5.4.1 The principle of honesty extends to issues of confidentiality of information. The ethical concern is to respect all obligations of confidentiality to all stakeholders unless discharged from such obligations by requirements of the law or other principles of this Code.
- 5.4.2 All Board Members and Senior Management, therefore, shall maintain the confidentiality of all confidential unpublished information about business and affairs of the Company.

5.5 Pledge & Practice

- 5.5.1 To strive continuously to bring about integrity and transparency in all spheres of the activities.
- 5.5.2 Work unstintingly for eradication of corruption in all spheres of life.
- 5.5.3 Remain vigilant and work towards growth and reputation of the Company.
- 5.5.4 Bring pride to the organization and provide value-based services to Company's stakeholders.
- 5.5.5 Do duty conscientiously and without fear or favour.

Quality professional work depends on professional review and comments. Whenever appropriate, individual members should seek and utilize peer review as well as provide critical review of their work.

6.6 Manage personnel and resources to enhance the quality of working life

Organizational leaders are responsible for ensuring that a conducive working and business environment is created for fellow employees to enable them delivering their best. The Board Members and Senior Management would be responsible for ensuring human dignity of all employees, would encourage and support the professional development of the employees of the Company by providing them all necessary assistance and cooperation, thus enhancing the quality of working.

6.7 Be upright and avoid any inducements

The Board Members and Senior Management shall not, directly or indirectly through their family and other connections, solicit any personal fee, commission or other form of remuneration arising out of transactions involving Company. This includes gifts or other benefits of significant value, which might by extended at times, to influence business for the organization or awarding a contract to an agency, etc.

6.8 Observe Corporate Discipline

The flow of communication within the Company is not rigid and people are free to express themselves at all levels. Though there is a free exchange of opinions in the process of arriving at a decision, but after the debate is over and a policy consensus has been established, all are expected to adhere and abide by it, even when in certain instances one may not agree with it individually. In some cases policies act as a guide to action, in others they are designed to put a constraint on action. All must learn to recognize the difference and appreciate why they need to observe them.

6.9 Conduct in a manner that reflects credit to the Company

All are expected to conduct themselves, both on and off duty, in a manner that reflects credit to the Company. The sum total of their personal attitude and behaviour has a bearing on the standing of Company and the way in which it is perceived within the organization and by the public at large.

6.10 Be accountable to Company's stakeholders

All of those whom we serve, be it our Customers, without whom the Company will not be in business, the Shareholders, who have an important stake in its business, the Employees, who have a vested interest in making it all happen, the Vendors, who support the Company to deliver in time and Society to which Company is responsible for its actions – are stakeholders of the Company. All, therefore, must keep in mind at all times that they are accountable to Company's stakeholders.

6.11 Prevention of Insider Trading

The Board Members and Senior Management shall comply with the code of internal procedures and conduct for prevention of Insider Trading in dealing with Securities of the Company.

6.12 Identify, mitigate and manage business risks
